

A top-down view of a white ceramic bowl filled with a dish of cod fish and zucchini noodles. The cod is cooked and has a golden-brown, slightly charred exterior. The zucchini noodles are spiralized and mixed with a creamy, orange-colored sauce. The dish is garnished with finely chopped green onions and small pieces of red tomatoes. A silver fork is placed on the left side of the bowl, partially submerged in the food. The bowl sits on a grey, textured placemat with tassels at the bottom right corner.
